

Roane County Democratic Party Executive Committee's Meeting

Thursday, June 9, 2011

Call to Order: The executive committee meeting was called to order by Bob Cowan.

Invocation: The invocation was given by Duie Swicegood.

Pledge of Allegiance: The Pledge of Allegiance immediately followed the invocation.

Roll Call: Kat Moore called the roll. Bob Cowan, Mary Ellen Blencoe, Kat and Tom Moore, Steve and Renee Kelley, Brad Parish, Brian Matthews, Duie Swicegood, Joe Swicegood, Jack McNew, and Derek Henderson were in attendance. Steve and Annie Scarborough were excused due to Steve's illness; and Babs and Rick Salley were excused due to previous commitments.

Minutes: Kat Moore read the minutes from the April executive committee meeting. There was a motion that was seconded and the minutes were approved.

Budget: Mary Ellen Blencoe read the budget. There was a motion to approve the budget, which was seconded and agreed to.

Old Business

Labor Day Picnic 2011 – Committee Report:

- Duie is working on getting a keynote speaker. Lincoln Davis and John Mark Wendell are two possibilities. Also, Annie will be asked if she would get someone to speak for the TEA.
- Tickets will be printed and sold.
- A flyer will be printed.
- Mary Ellen will donate her books as door prizes.

Letter to the Editor:

- Duie will call Steve to get the editorial about teachers ready for publication in the Roane County News.
- Joe and Jack will write about Fleishman's vote against OSHA and EPA regulations.

New Business

Announcement: Brad announced the Young Democrats Convention on Saturday in Lebanon.

2012 Presidential Campaign: Duie and Steve Kelley discussed campaign strategies

Adjournment: Bob motioned to adjourn the meeting. There was a second, an agreement, and the meeting was adjourned.