

Roane County Democratic Party Executive Committee's Meeting

Sunday, August 28, 2011

An informal meeting was called at the home of Tom & Kat Moore to finalize plans for the Labor Day Picnic.

Attendees: Bob Cowan, Brad Parish, Steve and Annie Scarborough, Kat and Tom Moore, Duie Swicegood, Steve and Renee Kelley, and Jack McNew.

Old Business

Labor Day Picnic 2011

Set Up. Helpers are to be expected at the park at 9 a.m.

Check In. The table will be manned by Anita Hume, Rick and Babs Salley, and Duie Swicegood. We will use the Votebuilder database on a laptop computer to facilitate the process.

Voting Law Flyers. Tom will have 2-sided copies made.

Food Review. Food, grilling supplies, and refrigeration were discussed. In addition to foods covered at previous meetings, Kat will bring watermelon; Babs and Steve S. are contributing coleslaw; and the Kelleys are bringing potato salad. Several coolers will be on site, and Bob is working on getting a refrigerator.

Silent Auction. A credit card reader will be used to process payments.

Additional Speakers. Duie wants a NAACP representative to speak. Bob suggested Justin Wilkins from the OFA in East Tennessee

New Business

Tennessee Values DVDs. Bob will have a house party in late September or early October to show a DVD about messaging. Dixie Damm will be there to present it.

Adjournment: Bob motioned to adjourn the meeting. There was a second, an agreement, and the meeting was adjourned.
